In this worksheet you will read and practice Present Perfect. You will you will read a short text and answer some activities of reading comprehension. After that, you will learn about the use of FOR and SINCE and finally you will contrast sentences in simple past vs present perfect

My name's Albert and I'm a lifeguard. I've worked here for 4 years and I really love my job. I've saved some lives and that's really rewarding. It's nice to know that my job is important to keep people safe while they're resting and having fun at the beach.

I also like to know that my advice is useful to keep people free from being assaulted, injured or even sunburned. I work from Tuesday to Saturday, from 9 to 5 and rest two Sundays a month. Twice a month I work from 9 to noon because while people rest I have to do my job.

My friends think I should quit and have the opportunity to rest and go out during the weekend, but I can't imagine doing anything else.

I. Mark true (T) or false (F) according to the text. You'll have to explain when it's false:

1. Albert is a swimming instructor. ()
2. His job is to keep people safe at the beach. ()
3. He likes his job. ()
4. He works during the week and the weekend as well. ()
5. His friends think he should get another job. ()
6. He saves lives and gives advice on how to swim well. ()
7. Advising people to use sunscreen and to protect from the sun isn't one of his duties. ()

We use the present perfect (have / has + participle) with for to talk about the duration of an action (for five years); we use the present perfect with since to refer to the beginning of an action (since July).

Complete with "for" or "since":

1. I've lived here _____ 10 years.
2. I've known Marilyn _____ last summer.
3. We've been here _____ 11 a.m.
4. Alice has studied at this school _____ 2 years.
5. The boys have stayed at the beach _____ 2 hours.

Mark (1) when the sentence refers to the past; (2) if it refers to the present; (3) if it refers to both present and past:

The plane landed on time and without any difficulties. ()

Mrs. Johnson doesn't work here. ()

Kelly lived in Australia for 10 years before moving to the US. ()

The cat brought something in its mouth this morning. ()

The baby cried the whole night. That's why I couldn't sleep. ()
