Transcript of the video in the English Capsule

(Edith is an afro-American friend of mine, who I met while teaching English to people from Mexico and central America while living in The States. She is in her 40s, she is very friendly, sweet and a great person. She is happily married to Jason they have no kids, as they travel a lot they decided not to have kids. Edith nowadays teaches English to people from Middle east countries, she no longer works in the language institute we used to work together 10 years ago, she loves teaching. She is vegetarian, and she cooks absolutely fantastic! :P)

Hi Patricia!! My beautiful friend how I miss you! I'm making this video for your students in beautiful Andacollo so they can see what's going on here back in America (short for USA) I'm Edith ..Hi!!

I also teach English to international students and let's see today is May 23rd on a Saturday..that's one of the problems we have with the corona.. as we are at home so much we don't remember what day it is ..or the date!!.. but it's ..oh Goodness! I'ts not all bad.. we stay at home, we work on our gardens we work on different projects, we practice our Español.. Hola estudiantes de Andacollo..¿cómo está? And mmm that's just about it .. we cook at home, we eat at home, sometimes we order food for delivery.. but that's all we stay at home... it's all not bad! Anyway, i'll see you later.. I'll talk to you very soon.. Bye Bye!

After listening to the video and reading the transcript, answer the following questions:

1. Was it easy or difficult to understand her? Why?

.....

2. Did you like the video? Why or why not?
