In this worksheet you will read and practice your reading comprehension skill. You will learn about a Spanish girl your age, then you will correct some information about her and learn some new words from the text. Finally, you will learn to use future tense and practice the use of WILL in affirmative and negative sentences.

- I. Read the text and correct the information about her. Use the vocabulary provided

Hello friends,

I am a Spanish little girl. Helen is my name and I am 13 years old. I live in Barcelona. I don't know if you have ever been here. This is a very nice city. There are important monuments and a Gothic Cathedral. I have two brothers, Tony and Eduardo. I am the youngest in my family so people think I am beautiful and my hair is blond and my eyes are blue. Marina is my mom and Julio is my dad. There are good parents although sometimes they are very strict with me. I go to a middle school. The teachers are friendly and teach us useful material. Geography is my favourite subject and I also like English because it's important to speak a foreign language. Lessons start at nice o'clock and finish at five. We have lunch at the canteen. They prepare good vegetables and fish or meat. We eat fruit every day but we never have ice cream or cakes. At home I have dinner with my parents and my brothers. I always go to bed at ten o'clock. I usually read a book or talk to my mom. Tomorrow is Saturday and my parents are going to take us to the movie theatre. I love movies.

Vocabulary:

- The youngest: la más joven
- although: sin embargo
- canteen: comedor (de un colegio)
